Princess Lai, mother of the baby emperor of China, and wife of the Prince Regent, has eloped with an actor, Yung Shu Lu. The mother of the emperor, the report says, fell in love with the actor and corresponded with him for some time before the rebellion began. The conclusion is drawn that the princess believed that the Manchu cause was lost and decided to flee. The princess is said to have taken a fortune in jewels with her and to be living with Yung in Mukden. An actor and a barber are classed with the lowest of castes in China, and Chinese say that the elopement of the princess was the greatest disgrace that could come to the Manchu dynasty.

I will take orders for all kinds of cakes, and plum puddings. Fruit cakes a specialty. Telephone 825.
MRS. W. S. DAVISON.

The spectacle of a criminal court in California consuming six weeks of time to secure only five jurors is a disgrace to American court procedure.

The American Magazine for November presents two articles of national importance.—Senator La Follette's Autobiography and "Wonderful Hawaii—A World Experiment Station," by Ray Stannard Baker. Fiction in the number is notable because of the first installment of "Marriage," the new study of modern matrimony, by H. G. Wells. Leonard Merrick writes one of the best short stories of the year. Walt MacDugall writes an aeroplane war story that was praised by Orville Wright; there is unusual fiction by G. W. Ouden and Wells Hastings, and another "Phoebe and Ernest" tale.

A Wonderful News Service.

Have you ever paused to think what a marvelous organization must be necessary to lay before you each day an accurate account of the happenings of yesterday in Europe, Asia, Africa, South America, Australia, the islands of the sea and the whole expanse of our own continent, all in a single newspaper? The intricate network of cables and telegraph lines, the complicated chain of news-gathering agencies stretching across continents and oceans, the innumerable reporters working daily for you under tropic suns and over arctic snows—have you ever felt the romantic thrill of it all in reading a great modern newspaper such as THE CHICAGO RECORD HERALD? We mention this paper especially because of the completeness of its domestic and foreign news service. It has a correspondent in every town or city of importance in the United States, a veritable army of them in all. In addition it has the benefit of the foreign news service of the New York Herald, famous for its worldwide cable system and for the reliability of its foreign news; also that of the New York World and the New York Journal of Commerce, besides that of the great co-operative news-gathering organization, the Associated Press. With such a vast and complete news service it is not strange that THE RECORD-HERALD so easily holds its own as one of the greatest newspapers in the world.

DR. KING'S NEW DISCOVERY
KILLS COUGHS
AND CURES BRONCHITIS
AND ALL AFFECTIONS OF THE THROAT AND LUNGS

Is the World Growing Better?

Many things go to prove that it is. The way thousands are trying to help others is proof. Among them is Mrs. W. W. Gould, of Pittsfield, N. H. Finding good health by taking Electric Bitters, she now advises other sufferers, everywhere, to take them. "For years I suffered with stomach and kidney trouble," she writes "Every medicine I used failed till I took Electric Bitters. But this great remedy helped me wonderfully." They'll help any woman. They're the best tonic and finest liver and kidney remedy that's made. Try them. You'll see at all druggists.

Dog Hangs Himself.

A dog that attempted to jump over a picket fence on Seventh street Friday night, caught its neck between two pickets and died from strangulation.

It Startled The World

when the astounding claims were first made for Bucklen's Arnica Salve, but forty years of wonderful cures have proved them true, and everywhere it is now known as the best salve on earth for Burns, Boils, Scalds, Sores, Cuts, Bruises, Sprains, Swellings, Eczema, Chapped hands, Fever Sores and Piles. Only 25c at all druggists.

Oiled Streets.

The present condition of those streets which were oiled the past summer shows the wisdom of the use of the oil. The streets nearly all look as smooth and solid as the bitulithic streets do. There are some who contend that the streets would have even been in better condition if they had never been swept of the dust which previously covered them; that the dust and oil mixed and made a covering for the streets which is not unlike bitulithic and cement makes. Oiled streets will likely be more popular next spring than ever before.—Paducah News-Democrat.

What the News Democrat says of the oiled streets of Paducah is true of the oiled streets of Owensboro. Oil holds the dust down in summer and makes a smooth, solid street for winters' use. Experiments made indicate that oil for making good thoroughfares of dirt streets and roads will soon be in general use, especially in cities which can not put down macadam or asphalt.—Owensboro Inquirer.

Saved Child From Death.

"After our child had suffered from severe bronchial trouble for a year," wrote G. T. Richardson, of Richardson's Mills, Ala., "we feared it had consumption. It had a bad cough all the time. We tried many remedies without avail, and doctor's medicine seemed as useless. Finally we tried Dr. King's New Discovery, and are pleased to say that one bottle effected a complete cure, and our child is again strong and healthy." For coughs, colds, hoarseness, la grippe, Asthma, croup and sore lungs, its most infallible remedy that's made. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.

Quaker City Wisdom

All frogs and most men are born kickers. Don't feel uppish over your castles in the air. Strange as it may seem, the smallest shoe is a foot long. The old adage about a new broom is rather a sweeping assertion. Some people burst into song as though they were committing a burglary. Some men can detect counterfeit money by touch. It must make them feel queer.—Philadelphia Record.

A Burglar's Awful Deed

may not paralyze a home so completely as a mother's long illness. But Dr. King's New Life Pills are a splendid remedy for women. "They gave me wonderful benefit in constipation and female trouble," wrote Mrs. M. C. Dunlap, of Leadell, Tenn. If ailing, try them. 25c at all druggists.

Edwin P. Marrow will deliver the memorial address for the Owensboro Elks.
